Dear Sirs,

Re: Jim Mansfield

We act on behalf of Mr Jim Mansfield

In the Special Criminal court this week it was alleged that he had engaged with a person to conduct an eviction of an employee and his family

This is untrue and without any foundation whatsoever .Mr Mansfield denies completely having any such engagement

The claim is based on what was said allegedly to Gardai as part of a separate criminal investigation

There are other recorded inaccuracies in relation to Mr Mansfield's previous business antecedents which our client takes issue with

Speaking today after reviewing a series of media publications referencing the court case solicitor Mr Kevin Winters said we have written to Gardai today to request details about the basis for the allegations.

We will not hesitate to litigate as soon as we receive a formal response

Our client will issue proceedings to protect his good name and reputation as a business 'man of standing'.

Yours faithfully
